There are recipes that are not too difficult - some are and have dozens of ingredients - but there are lots in there that are fairly easy to make without using hundreds of ingredients and taking forever. I live in Australia and have visited the Spirit House restaurant in Noosa. The food is magnificent and the ambience is number one (little streams running through the gardens beside the tables - it's really lovely. The restaurant is very well known and highly regarded so it makes sense their cook books live up to their name.0 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Brilliant Cookbook!By vls2002I am an Aussie living in the UK and I really miss my favourite restaurant, The Spirit House. I ordered this plus two other of their cookbooks to try to recreate a little bit of this amazing restaurant at home. The seller despatched all of the books really quickly and the delivery price was amazing (pound;10!) consider it was being sent to the UK. I have already cooked one recipe out of this book and it was a total winner! It is full of exciting recipes that I can't wait to make!0 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Phenomenal!By J. AustinThis is an AWESOME cook book. Beautiful pictures, and even tastier food! Some of the ingredients can be hard to source, but if you do, you won't be disappointed I can assure you!!

From the successful launch of their first book, Spirit House and their second book, Travels With Thai Food, the chefs of Spirit House restaurant in the Noosa hinterland take the tradition of Thai food and ingredients and expand on preparing and cooking stunning dishes. This book covers everything a novice or an expert chef would want to know about cooking Thai dishes with Asian ingredients and easy cooking methods.

About the AuthorHelen Brierty and her husband Peter own the well-known Spirit House Restaurant and Cooking School at Yandina on the Sunshine Coast. With Head Chef Annette Fear, Helen has co-authored Spirit House Recipe Collection and Travels with Thai Food in which they have brought together their most popular and requested dishes, which have been enjoyed for years by diners at the restaurant and taught to students at the cooking school. Helen has created a hydroponic farm that, together with surrounding farms, provides both the restaurant and cooking school with the freshest of produce.
