Imagine having a rewarding career assisting busy professionals and companies. But instead of going into an office, you work "virtually" from the comfort of your own home. As a virtual assistant, you can have a flexible, financially rewarding business with the freedom to do work that you love. In this book you will discover: - How to provide virtual assistant services, plus a variety of services you can offer to increase your income - How to cost-effectively start your own part-time or full-time virtual assistant business from home - How to set your prices, market your services, and get clients, plus advice on working with corporate clients If you want to be paid to provide virtual assistant services, this FabJob guide is for you! This book shows how you can start a successful virtual assistant business. Visit FabJob.com for career guides. This book is now a textbook for the International Association of Professions Career College. Virtual Assistant Certificate Courses are available from the publisher's website.

"I wish I had started my virtual assistant business sooner. It has allowed me the freedom to choose to do what I want, for who I want, when I want." --Kate V. Kerans, CEO Kerans Virtual Assistance
