The perfect treat for the warmer months: Fridge Cakes are simple to make, adaptable to whatever is in the cupboard, and no oven (and therefore no cooking skills) required. In this book, Jean-Luc Sady shares over 30 ingenious recipes that are simple to make but taste amazing. There's a zesty chocolate orange, a decadent choco-fudge, and a summery mango and passionfruit. With chapters dedicated to fruity, chocolate, and extra creamy, you will have a fridge cake ready to make for pretty much any occasion. And best of all, most of the recipes take 25 minutes to pull together (plus freezing time).
