Marshella Goodsworth : Gourmet Chinese Food for Your Do It Yourself Wedding before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Gourmet Chinese Food for Your Do It Yourself Wedding:

10 of 10 people found the following review helpful. another LOL four recipe "cookbook"By canoe42This is yet another "cookbook" from Marshella Goodsworth, Carla Julington, Marshella Goodsoon or whatever this person is currently calling him/herself. It has thirteen, triple-spaced pages and contains only four recipes: Orange Walnut Scallops Over Rice, Baked Beef Buns (flattened refrigerator biscuits), Hot and Sour Soup and Glazed Chicken and Broccoli Over Rice (made with condensed tomato soup). The soup recipe includes canned chicken gravy, pickle juice, ketchup, potato starch and rice. It gives me the creeps just thinking about some of those ingredients together. As usual, a Joyce A. Meyer heartily endorses this pamphlet. I sincerely doubt that it is merely a coincidence that this name just happens to be that of a famous evangelist. has a good refund and return policy if money is actually spend buying this "cookbook." I obtained it for free and it was over-priced. Buyer beware.5 of 8 people found the following review helpful. Save your moneyBy CPThe word "gourmet" in this title is used pretty loosely here and it continues going downhill after that. There's a whopping total of four recipes in this ebook. But if that isn't disappointing enough, flip through the book and you'll see that there are absolutely no pictures.$6.99 for a measly collection of four recipes and no pictures?? Really, you'd be better off having Panda Express cater your wedding than buying this book.2 of 3 people found the following review helpful.
