James Halliday is an Australian wine judge and connoisseur and there is no other wine guide like it and if you love wine then I don't need to tell you why you should own it.2 of 4 people found the following review helpful. A great book you simply can't readBy Gareth NobleI am sure this is an excellent book, but as a Kindle it simply does not work. It seizes frequently and crashes Kindle. The only other book (of several) to do this is the 2015 version (I bought both at the same time, I didn't simply repeat the mistake) . I have written to Wine Companion, without reply.

Keenly anticipated each year by winemakers, collectors and wine lovers, the Australian Wine Companion is recognized nationally as the industry benchmark. The 2016 edition has been completely revised to bring you up-to-the-minute information.In his inimitable style, Halliday shares his extensive knowledge of wine through detailed tasting notes, each with vintage-specific ratings and advice on optimal drinking as well as each wine's closure, alcohol content and price. He provides information about the wineries, winemakers and other important details such as vineyard sizes, opening times, contact details and website addresses.The Australian Wine Companion is an indispensable reference from the country's leading wine authority and a must-have guide for anyone planning to visit a winegrowing region, or wanting to replenish their cellar or wine rack.

"a must for any wine enthusiast or anyone interested in exploring drops and vineyards across the country." - Yours
"An indispensable guide for wine connoisseurs; novices and any dads planning a weekend escape to the vines." - Canberra Weekly
About the AuthorA respected wine critic and vigneron, James Halliday is an unmatched authority on every aspect of the Australian wine industry and can be compared to the likes of Hugh Johnson, Robert Parker and Jancis Robinson. His winemaking has led him to sojourns in Bordeaux and Burgundy, and he has had a long career as an international wine judge. In 1995 he received the Australian wine industry's ultimate accolade, the Maurice O'Shea Award, and in 2010 he was made a Member of the Order of Australia.
