best recipes in each category for the year listed, so recipes are limited. I only wish if there were no Gold Medal winners of a specific recipe, that the next runner up would have been listed. But then it wouldn't be all Gold Medal Winners then would it. A great addition to anyone's Brewing Library. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Nice! By KindleCharlie Papazian is a brewing guru and the information provided by him on this book is great, also including a little about the method employed to discover the ingredients used on each beer. It is a nice to have book. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Excellent! By Robert Peterson Nice to have access to so many great gold medal winning recipes, especially when written by an expert like Charlie!

America's master home brewer shows you how to make the best beers on the world. In 1996, the brewers of the world met the ultimate challenge: the World Beer Cup International Competition. More than 250 breweries entered their finest creations in sixty-one different categories before an international panel of beer-making experts. Only the most magnificent examples of the brewmaster's art qualified for the top award: the Gold Cup. And now, you can taste all these prize-winning brews -- at home. Here's all you need to know to make five gallons of each Gold Cup champion brew. Based on brewery data, lab analysis, tasting notes, and Charlie Papazian's quarter-century of home brewing experience here are recipes encompassing: British ales, bitters, porters, and stouts Ale in the American, German, and Belgian styles Pilseners Premium, dark, ice, and dry lagers Bocks Light beers Malt liquors Herb, spice, and fruit beers e Non-alcoholic malt beverages And much more. Chock-full of information about the winning breweries, brewing styles and international beer-making traditions, Home Brewer's Gold represents the state of the art in home brewing. The world's best beers, served up by America's greatest home brewer -- This book's for you!

About the Author Charlie Papazian is the founder of the American Homebrewers Association (AHA) and the Association of Brewers and the current president of the Brewers Association. The creator of the Great American Beer Festival and the World Beer Cup, he is the founding publisher of the magazines Zymurgy (for homebrewers) and The New Brewer (for professional craftbrewers). He lives in Boulder, Colorado, with his wife, Sandra, and daughter, Carla, where he still avidly homebrews lagers, ales, and honey meads.
