Paul Kennedy : Ideas About Guinness (Made for Happiness) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Ideas About Guinness (Made for Happiness):

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. i will purchase it from you next time. By Watson send it to my teacher as a gift, The product arrived on time and was well packaged. My wife has been baking some wonderful loaves of artisan-type rye, white and whole wheat breads. They are very crusty, and we had experienced some difficulty finding a product that could handle the crust. This product worked extremely well, cutting through the crust with ease.

We are very pleased with our recent purchase. very useful. it is very fast delivery. feel very good .

Kennedy's Analysis is irreverent, amusing, and highly informative in this clever documentary. -- AudioFile Magazine OCT/NOV 00From AudioFileCanadian public radio personality Paul Kennedy, host of the CBC daily program "Ideas," takes the listener on an hour-long tour of St. James Gate, on the River Liffey in Dublin, Ireland, where Guinness Stout Ale has been brewed since 1759. Kennedy takes the microphone along as he chats with men and women throughout the Irish countryside about their thoughts and memories of Guinness, and into the brewery itself for a firsthand look at how the famous ale is made. Kennedy's analysis is irreverent, amusing, and highly informative in this clever documentary. S.E.S. copy; AudioFile 2000, Portland, Maine-- Copyright copy; AudioFile, Portland, Maine
