It is very informative for a novice.I tried the sago chat, the day I bought the book and it was super delicious....everyone loved it.....the best thing it took me less than 30 minutes to prepare. For Nina Kaul, food isn't just eating or entertaining, it's how she shows love. Her food isn't just creativity mixed with tradition, it's a story and a smile. She wants to impart Indian history through her food to her readers. She is a loving mom who passes and shows love to her family and friends through food. Traveling and living in many different countries has given her the opportunity to learn and believe that food indeed brings different cultures together. With that desire she hopes and wishes that her readers will enjoy and have fun cooking from her book. This book isn't just meant to help you cook a great Indian dinner, but also a way to share creativity, tradition, stories, smiles and love.
