Martin Beeman, Judy Beeman : Joys of Hawaiian Cooking before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Joys of Hawaiian Cooking:

This collection was compiled from recipes shared by some of the best cooks living on the Big Island of Hawaii. Some are gathered from foreign lands, some are family recipes passed from generation to generation and some are shared through friendship. All are family favorites that illustrate the great variety of dishes available in our Hawaiian paradise through the blending of the many varied races and nationalities living here in harmony. We hope you enjoy them all.
