The one recommended is out of the UK and the shipping costs ... By Busy Granny I was not too impressed. Impossible to find the little baby face mold here in the USA. The one recommended is out of the UK and the shipping costs are not worth it. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five Stars By Beth Knight love this book they are so cute thank goods you can eat these ones

Showcasing the crafting of model babies, this helpful guidebook is an ideal resource for beginners as well as experienced model makers and sugarcrafters. The models, which can be made in a variety of different materials, including sugar and clay, are ideal for topping off cakes, gifts at baby showers, or ornaments for any occasion. More than 20 patterned outfits for the modeled babies to wear are shown, such as dogs, cats, rabbits, ducks, fairies, and elves. With sections devoted to the detailed painting of faces, the modeling of hands, and simple modeling techniques for various parts of the body, this guidebook covers all the topics necessary to make adorable baby adornments.

About the Author Frances McNaughton is a sugarcraft tutor and demonstrator who provides workshops to the British Sugarcraft Guild and the National Sugarart Association. Her sugarcraft props have appeared in the films Notting Hill, Chocolat, and three of the Harry Potter films.
